Volunteer Dress Code – Habitat for Humanity of Metro Denver

Volunteers at Habitat for Humanity should abide by the following dress code for the safety of all volunteers, staff, and patrons. Failure to abide by the dress code may result in volunteer shift cancellation.

1. Sturdy, close-toed shoes are required at all times.
2. Volunteers are recommended to wear long pants. If shorts are worn, they must be mid-thigh to knee length.
3. Volunteers are recommended to wear long-sleeved or regular short-sleeved T-shirts that cover the torso. Tank tops, crop tops, and cut-outs are prohibited.
4. Volunteers are recommended to wear clothing that allows them to move freely, lift heavy objects, and that can get dirty/paint stained.
